THE RUN ON THE BANK OF SELDEN, WITHERS & Co., appears to us to have greatly lessened. Indeed, from the appearance around their understands his business, and will do much doors to day, very little of their money is now towards making the National worthy of being being presented for redemption, all of which called the head quarters "of the Capital." is promptly redeemed in Virginia money, as Many important improvements have been their notes stipulate We were in error, we made in this house. Among which we notice the Trans-Allerhany Bank, of Va.

They sold to the parties in Virginia, interested in that establishment, the State of Virginia stocks, on the pledge of which the Tran: -Alleghany notes were issued by the Comptroller of the State, dollar for dollar with the cent. discount.

The Alexandria, Va., banks yesterday, we know, freely dealt in that paper as heretotry, and we therefore cannot see why the Trans Alleghany money is not as well secured as any stock secured bank paper can be.

One of the active and efficient partners of the House of Selden, Withers & Co , reached Washington this morning from the North, where he first heard of the run upon the establishment. He leaves the credit of the House undoubted in New York, save through and ironing rooms are improved; in the lat-

There can be no doubt that the private fortunes of all the partners in the bank of Selden, Withers & Co. are responsible for all its transactions, as they all unhesitatingly make coat room has been placed for the accommodathis avowel, Mr. Withers included. Some of tion of guests. A room like this has been the drafts or checks upon them, which they refused to honor yesterday and the day before, have subsequently been paid. They say that these were refused only on account of the in tensity and wholly unexpected character of the run upon them, which induced them to husband their funds on hand and obtainable here at very short notice to meet the demands of their note holders, the large majerity of whom were persons of small means.

They assure us that they expect to continue their business as usual, promptly meeting all demands upon them, and are busy with arrangements which will enable them to pay all foreign drafts upon them at sight, as well as all their notes, as at present. It is due to this house that we should state, further, that as agents of the State of Virginia, they have promptly and faithfully met all the demands of her Board of Public Works upon

Dancing was kept up until the small hours of the morning, the ladies appearing as enthusiastically bent on making a happy night of it, as their partners. The staff, too, was well represented on the occasion, Colonel Riley. Major Keyworth, Quartermaster McCullom, and one or two others appearing on their be-

THE MINSTRELS .- Odd Fellows' Hall was made vocal again last night by Parrow's troupe of capital Ethiopian Minstrels. A fair audience was present, all of whom seemed delighted with the performances This A No. 1 company sing various fine new pieces, while their other entertainments embrace much mirth creating novelty. Just now there is no other way of enjoying in Washington so ex hilarating an evening as they provide for all who visit them. Laughter, hearty and strong, takes the kinks out of one. Are ye weighed down with low spirits or troubled with ennui? Then be sure to visit Odd Fellows' Hall tonight, where, if you be not made of stone, you can hardly fail to laugh for an hour, as though your sides were about to crack.

SELLING Poisonous Daugs .- In their last annual report the Board of Health, for this city, urged on the Councils the duty of passing an ordinance against the sale of poisonous drugs by apothecaries, or any others here, except on the written prescription of some well known medical man. They based this request on the fact that suicide and murder, by means of such drugs, are becoming exceedingly common over the country, half a dozen cases of the kind having occurred in this community within the last twelve months. The case occurring on the day before yesterday, in the Capitol building, should surely be sufficient to awaken our Councils to their duty

Going it Strong !- Not long since a loving pair in the First Ward of Washington got married. In two days afterwards, the bride, becoming dissatisfied with the groom's violatien of his promise not to drink-or with a story that he had done so-went off with an apprenticed youth, and "tried her luck" in matrimony a second time; being duly joined to him also in the solemn bands of matrimony. There's a fuss in the ward all about this affair, as a matter of course, which the law will probably have to settle; the first husband being loud in the assertion of his rights. Though his not for parts unknown.

THE BALL To-NIGHT .- Don't forget the Empire Club's ball to-night, at Temperance Hall-you who would trip it on the light fantastic toe. The arrangements bid fair to make it one of the most agreeable of the season. Lots of charming damsels will surely be "on hand," the Empires being proverbially popular with the ladies, as such gallant, dashing what cut and bruised in the face, and his opyoung fellows should be. We presume their ponent more so. Westerfield did not want to male friends will attend in crowds, while we send the case to court, and the Captain held preparing for this entertainment.

PROTRACTED MEETINGS .- We understand that a protracted meeting is in progress in the a naval officer entered the bar room of one of First Baptist church, Tenth street, and that our large hotels, and called for a hot whisky Rev. Mr. Greer, of Virginia, is assisting the pastor in the exercises. There is one also in progress at the Fifth Presbyterian church, corner of I and Fifth streets, under the pastoral charge of Rev. A. G. Carothers, assisted in the exercises by Rev. Mr. Eva. Considerable interest is manifested in these meetings, and we understand there are many inquirers after the truth.

county constables, who is ever on the alert to ceived, we judge that there is a gang of those pounce down upon all who are guilty of trivial violations of the law, in violation of a city ordinance tied his horse to a tree-box, when some of his associates, perhaps to learn him a lesson, were about to inform on him. He only | ing in the way of discounting, which is a segot off by " treating the crowd."

NEW APPARATUS .- The bell on the Perseverance engine house was sounded this morning to call the members of the company together, to receive their new suction, which has just been received from the builder, Mr John Agnew, of Philadelphia. It is a neat engine, handsomely painted, but not gaudy. The cylinders are 6f inches, and the box so arranged that the engine can be worked from either side, which is considered by firemen to be a valuable improvement. The cost of the engine is said to be $1,200.

FIGHT ON THE AVENUE .- Yesterday after noon, several young men who had been indulging a little too freely, got into a fracas on the corner of Sixth street and the Avenue Quite a crowd was attracted to the spot, but no harm was done, and the parties were not ar-

RE-OPENING OF THE NATIONAL HOTEL -By an advertisement in to-day's Star, it will be seen that the National Hotel will be re-opened for the reception of visiters on Monday, the 27th inst., under the auspices of Edward Willard, Esq. Mr Willard is well known to the travelling community and the citizens of Washington, as a gentleman who thoroughly find, in attributing to them the ownership of the repainting of the office, gentlemen's sit ting and lounging rooms, and the extensive corridors, which gives a new and life-like appearance to the entire house. Beautiful light colors having been substituted for the dingy paints that heretofore darkened the walls.

The dining rooms have been greatly imsix per cent stocks deposited with him. They proved. As an investment, Virginia State stocks The water closets, which were so near the laare certainly equal to any stocks in the coundies' parlors and or linary, have been removed also to another part of the building, making them more private and better ventilated. Improvements have been made in the dining rooms, by opening wide door-ways and placing the carving room so as to serve both the gentlemen's and ladies' ordinary with the greatest convenience. The cooking apparatus in the kicchen is vastly improved. The washing the ramor of a suspension here, which has not ter, an iron heated by gas running through a gutta percha tube to the iron, which is moved about at the will of the ironer, has been introduced in lieu of the old mode.

Soldiers of the War of 1812 -A meeting of soldiers of the war of 1812 was held yesterday morning in the Aldermen's Chamber, City Hall. Col. J. S. Williams was called to the chair, and Richard Burgess appointed

The following resolutions were effered and after being amended so as to include sailors, in the late war, with the soldiers in the application to Congress, and to the effect that the delegation take measures for calling the early attention of Congress to the subject of bounty lands and pensions in connection with the soldiers of the war of 1812, memorials relating to which were presented during the late session, were passed:

Whereas, a National Convention of the soldiers of the war of 1812 has been proposed to be held in the city of Washington on the 8th of January next, for the purpose of adopting such measures as may be deemed proper and necessary to obtain from Congress the enactment of a law in their behalf relative to bounty lands and pensions, it is

Resolved, That the object for which said Convention is called is hereby approved, and that thirteen delegates be appointed by the chair to represent this meeting in said Con-

Resolved, That the delegation make all the necessary arrangements for the accommodation of the National Convention. Resolved. That on any future occasion requiring a meeting of the soldiers of 1812 in this District and neighborhood, the chairman of this meeting be authorized to make the call. After the passage of the resolutions, the meeting adjourned.

IMPROVEMENT.-We yesterday had an opportunity of seeing the very extensive arrangements making by Wall & Stephens, in their establishment on the Avenue, for the display of their goods and the accommodation of their customers. The establishment has always been extensive. The entire lower room, from the Avenue to D street, is now changed into a sale's room, where their goods are neatly arranged. The upper room is for the accommodation of their workmen, and is dear one has left him for distant parts, though admirably adapted to the purpose. The energy displayed by these gentlemen entitles them to the patronage of the public, and we hope they may obtain their full share.
